WHEN WE ARE OLD AND GRAY .

MADAME SAINTON-DOLBY .

ANDANTE. ( not too slow . )

VOICE .

PIANO .

Con tenerezza .

When we are old and gray , love, When we are old and gray , When at last 'tis all all o - - ver The turmoil of the day ... The turmoil of the day In the still soft hours of e-ven, In our life's fair twilight time We'll look up-on the morn love, Up-on our ear-ly prime "Thank God for all the sweet days" We'll whisper while we may When

When we are old and gray.

we are old and gray, love, When we are old and gray

When

we were young and gay love, When we were young and gay .... When distant seem'd De - cem - ber And all was golden May And

When we are old and gray

all was golden May .... A - mid our life's hard turmoil, Our
